

The Florida Bar Student Application for Affiliate Membership in the Tax Section

In order to be considered for affiliate membership, students must meet the requirements for membership as defined by the bylaws of the Section. Article II, Membership, Section 2. Affiliate Membership, states:

Section 2. Affiliate Membership. The Directors' Committee may, at its sole discretion, accept a person who is a full-time law student at any accredited school of law in Florida; an inactive member of The Florida Bar as defined in Rule 1-3.2(c) of the Rules Regulating The Florida Bar; or a law faculty affiliate of The Florida Bar as defined in Rule 1-3.9 of the Rules Regulating The Florida Bar, as an affiliate member of this Section, upon application and payment of the prescribed dues.

Affiliate members shall have all the privileges of membership in this Section, except that they may not:

- (a) Hold any office in the Section, whether elected or appointed;
- (b) Vote or participate in the election of any officers of the Section; and
- (c) Vote on the adoption, change or revision of any provision of these bylaws.

The number of affiliate members of the Section at any time may not exceed one-third (1/3) of the total Section membership.

The dues for affiliate membership are $20.00 per individual. If you are interested in subscribing to The Florida Bar News or The Florida Bar Journal, you may call 1-800-342-8060 for subscription rates.

To be considered for affiliate membership, please complete the application below and attach a letter from the Dean of your law school certifying your status and your check for $20.00 made payable to The Florida Bar. If accepted, your dues are payable thereafter in advance of each membership year. You will receive a bill from The Florida Bar each year. At such time as you become a member of The Florida Bar, and you wish to continue as a Section member, you must reapply for regular Section member status and pay the applicable fee at that time.

Your application and check should be mailed to Tax Section Program Administrator, The Florida Bar, 651 East Jefferson Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-2300.
